

Supplementary Fig. 1. Clinical features associated with bromodomain PHD finger transcription factor (BPTF) mutation. These features include clinodactyly of the feet (A), a squint, malformed teeth, a bulbous nasal tip, and a broad philtrum (B), and retrognathia (C) in the child, and a saddle-gap foot deformity in the mother (D).