On behalf of the editorial members of Annals of Child Neurology, I would like to extend my utmost gratitude to your hard work and relentless effort for Annals of Child Neurology in 2022. You surely shared your knowledge and experience to improve the quality of the manuscripts and helped us complete our publications on time. I really don’t know how we could have made it through without you. Annals of Child Neurology wouldn’t have been the same without your dedication. The peer reviewers listed below gave their effort, love, and time.
